In 100 words or less, please describe the mission of the Carlisle Barracks Spouses' Club:

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION / UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Please note any additional hobbies, interests, or activities not covered above that you would like the committee to consider. You may also write about any unusual circumstances that have affected your achievement and/or participation in school or community activities. For example: illness, learning disabilities, loss of a family member, etc. Please limit this to 150-200 words or less.

STUDENT RESUME

To get started, click or tap in the box and start typing. Continue on to as many pages as needed.

ACADEMIC GOALS

Be brief: one or two sentences.

SKILLS AND ACADEMIC STRENGTHS

Explain what you're especially good at. What sets you apart? Use your own language—not jargon.

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

List extracurricular activities over the last four years. Include an estimate of the hours spent over four years. If you were a team captain or class officer, include that information.

VOLUNTEER AND COMMUNITY EXPERIENCE

List community activities and volunteer (unpaid) work in which you participated. For example: Scouts, religious activities, the food bank, etc. Make this meaningful – do not include the one time you watched your neighbor’s cat.

HONORS AND AWARDS

List any honors, awards, and/or recognition received. Awards may be school, professional, and/or community related.

EXPERIENCE: CURRENT PAID EMPLOYMENT

JOB TITLE • COMPANY • DATES OF EMPLOYMENT

Summarize your key responsibilities, leadership, and most stellar accomplishments. Don’t list everything; keep it relevant and include data that shows the impact you made.

ESSAY QUESTION

Answer the following in 450-500 words on a separate piece of paper. Please use Arial 12-point font and double-space. Please do NOT include your name on your essay.

Describe your envisioned academic journey. What do you plan or hope to major in and why? If you haven't selected a major yet, describe the academic areas (disciplines) of study that interest you now and why they could become your major. What type of school will assist you in achieving your goals? (Tell us whether you will be studying at a trade school, a 2-year college, or a 4-year college/university).

How do you see your future after finishing your program? Will your major/field of study allow you to contribute to the public good? If so, how? If not, what are your plans post graduation?
